19 YEAR DRY RULE ENDS IN MILAM

"Our Town" by J. B. WHITE

What will be the cause and character of the new era of prosperity that everyone believes is rapidly approaching? That it should be a mere swing of the economic pendulum restoring temporarily conditions that have existed before, is not reassuring. A more cheering forecast is here, however.

Frank V. Burch, Milwaukee advertising expert just returned from an extensive tour for the purpose of consulting business executives, predicts a renewal of prosperity that will continue from 25 to 40 years and in large part will result from improvement in our present industries.

Railways will lead with a "normal schedule of 100 miles an hour." This he said, would necessitate practical rebuilding of the railroad systems, re-employment of our idle labor and huge re-investment of idle funds.

And Mr. Birch thinks a lot of jobs will be furnished by the neccesity of rebuilding our worn-out highway system—about 1,000,000 miles of concrete roads that will have to be renewed within a few years. With this task comes the need of thousands of grade separations, of complete illumination of many highwys and better lighting at intersections.

"The home of 10 years from today will be practically unsalable unless it has air conditioning. Rural America is but 15 per cent electrified and that job," says Mr. Birch, "must be finished. Television will be here within five years and that will demand $250,000,00 in reconstruction of broadcasting studios."

These prospective enterprises are developments of facilities already recognized. There also is the chance that a few new inventions may change the entire aspect of human affairs.

For every mile and a half of our highways, says the American Automobile Association, there is a filling station or a garage. Is that too many? Too many, perhaps to permit all of them to operate at a profit, but not too many for the accommodation of the traveling public.

For good or ill it has come to pass that the average motorist knows nothing whatever about his car. No longer, as in the ancient days, does he pull on a pair of overalls and "get out and get under"; he is as helpless to correct the infirmities of his power plant as he would be to tinker with the mechanism of the Queen Mary.

Nor does he carry equipment to mend his own tires, and it would tax his ingenuity, as well as his temper, even to change to a spare.

When stalled, therefore, he is stalled for good until professional assistance arrives. And a three quarters of a mile walk or a five minutes wait is the limit he will endure wthout calling the country thereabouts a desert.

As long as the stations do not greatly mar the landscape, as long as the service is rendered with the courtesy which has become so plea-

ROY LAW FOR COUNTY JUDGE

TO THE PEOPLE OF MILAM COUNTY:

In placing my name before you as a candidate for County Judge and asking that you give me an opportunity to serve in this important office I feel I am asking my friends to give me a promotion in the service of our county.

Sinice the first day I was honored with a public trust by a most gracious people I have let no opportunity pass without expressing my thanks and appreciation for the kindness you have shown me and the opportunity you gave me. Again I want to say the gratitude of my heart knows no limitations.

I took up the duties of the office you gave me with a firm conviction that a position of public trust and responsibility had been placed upon me, that I was a servant of all the people and that the office should be handled justly and fairly to all men. I performed the duties of the office with these high ideals always uppermost in my mind and my enthusiasm to serve all alike and to serve well never left me for a moment. When it appeared there was an opportunity for me to render a service of greater value to the people in the office of county judge I determined to make whatever personal sacrifice necessary and to ask the people at this time to elect me county judge. I therefore voluntarily retired from public office and returned to private life that I might again breathe the atmosphere of the man outside the court house and that I might see things as he saw them. I soon found some work that

Gridiron Distress Opens As Hopefuls Stumble In Grass

BY PEEPING REPORTER

The wheels are turning again as spring training begins, with five lettermen and some thirty "rookies" running here and there and passing the "pig skin about," to shake off a bit of lead accumulated during the winter months.

Amid the dust and confusion, coach L. C. Wood, with a sort of "down cast" look on his face is trying to convert a mixture of parlor pansies and "professional loafers,, into a hard fighting 1936 football team that will defend Yoe High maroon and gray next fall.

With only five men to build a team about, the problem may prove to be a bigger one for Coach Wood than trying to keep the coming star and letterman of last year, Luther Poole, eligible and in school. The other four lettermen are: Earl Peck, Joe McLean, James Stewart and "Cherry" Mode. Joe McLean and "Cherry" Mode will be bosses of the eleven if they make the team.

Among the "bench warmers" are Joe Alexander and Harry Hughes, both freshmen and both stand a good chance of wearing the colors for Yoe High if they stick to the game long enough.

Dero Underwod is learning to pass the ball . . . maybe he will be in the backfield next fall. Clifford Guess showed fine talent in the class games last season and is fighting for a seat on the backfield bench but unless he shows more interest he may lose to Luie Turner.

Although the prospects for a football team look hopeless right now, there is always hope—the hope that a group of "dark horses" will come out next fall to replace the fine team of last season.

Coach Wood has performed miracles before—maybe he can do it again—and speaking of Coach Wood, he must have something on his mind besides the desire to get sweaters for the boys promptly, because he doesn't have much to say—and who would?

REPEAL MAJORITY IS 933 VOTES

Milam County voters Saturday broke the 19 year drouth with a deluge of ballots for repeal of the law enacted in 1917 against the sale of liquor.

As a result of this poll all justice precincts in Milam county are wet except precincts 2 and 3 and the town of Davilla.

Homer Nabours, county clerk, certified to the Commissioners' Court at the session Tuesday that the vote was as follows: For legalizing sale of all liquors 2343 and against 1410 for a total majority of 933 votes.

Traditionally dry boxes as a rule returned certain but greatly diminished majorities for prohibition. In some instances dry boxes returned wet majorities. In Rockdale the vote was two to one for repeal. Milano returned a majority for repeal. Both Cameron precincts voted wet. Thorndale was the greatest contributor to the majority, the vote being 245 for and 39 against repeal.

In the traditionally wet boxes of Buckholts, Burlington, Marak, Elm Ridge, Bushdale and Gay Hill, the majority was heavy for repeal. Ben Arnold returned a substantial wet majority.

The question at issue was whether liquor would be legalized or continued under bootleg auspices. Now that legal sale has been authorized package stores may be opened, provided licenses are obtained. Publication of notices for two weeks is required by law. The open saloon is banned and liquor cannot be consumed on the presises where purchased.

MARCHES ON!

A 1926 model car popping along is certainly a true picture of a "has-been." Contrast it with the streamlined models of today. Compare its performance. It fades out of the picture . . . outmoded and obsolete.

And so it is with gas ranges. In their manufacture science and engineering have wrought advancements just as striking as in the automobile industry. Appearance, structural details and performance have been radically improved, creating a new standard in a cooking appliance. Without this modern cooking appliance no kitchen—no matter how modern its architecture and other appointments may be—can truthfully be called modern unless its range is a truly modern gas range!

So go modern with a new gas range. You can afford to. Terms are surprisingly small. See the newest 1936 models now on display.

A loud rumbling boom shook the school building, as chemistry students in an adjoining class room started for the door of the laboratory, visions of broken glass, shattered test tubes and burning woodwork flashed thru their minds. Imagine their amazement when they found everything in the usual neat condtion! At first they could not believe their eyes, but upon looking more closely they found the scattered remnants of a large firecracker. Then from behind a desk in the back of the room up popped a head wreathed in a mischevious grin, and the embarassing cry that followed was, "April Fool."

H. E. STUDENTS TO ATTEND RALLY

The Home Economics classes will hold a preliminary try out on Friday, April 10, and three girls will be selected to model their dresses at the State Homemaking Education Rally in San Angelo on April 23 to 25. Every student in the home economics classes will participate in the local try out. Judges will be home economics teachers from surrounding schools.

The Homemaking Education Rally is a rally of homemaking students, held annually by the Homemaking Division of the State Department of Vocational Education. Each year, from four hundred to eight hundred students attend this rally. In the homemaking classes of more than eight hundred Texas schools, many phases of homemaking are taught. An effort is made through class and home project work to guide the students in their efforts to attain certain definite objectives for the improvement of home and family life. Some of these objectives are: (1) To choose food wisely and prepare and serve it economically and attractively; (2) To select materials, construct and care for clothing, and to acquire individuality in dress and the art of wearing clothes well; (3) To plan the house, select and care for its equipment and furnishings in a satisfactory way; (4) To be able to arrange furniture, flowers, wall hangings, etc. (5) To develop an understanding of child life and child development with reference to the effect of relationships and environment; (6) To learn some of the principles of nutrition and to apply these principles from the standpoint of health and well-being in meeting individual and family needs; (7) To understand that education is a part itself and a continuous process, not limited by age.

Not all phases of the instruction can be represented in the State Rally. The emphasis in the rally has always been placed upon achievement of individuals.

Echoes From Ada Henderson

EDITORIAL

Now with the coming of spring we find time to look back on what we have done this year, on the happy days that have gone by, on all the good and bad things that we have done. It has been such a happy year for us that it does not seem possible that most of our last year in grammar school is gone forever. We find ourselves nearing the home stretch in our race for honors at graduation time. Only eight more weeks and some of us will cross the finish line of our career in "Dear old Ada Henderson." Are you near the head or are you one that has no one to look back at, just trailing the long line of contestants. If you are the latter, you had better dust off the cobwebs from your books. JOE PRESTON McLERRAN DIES IN CAR CRASH

Funeral services for Joe Preston McLerran, 39, of Shreveport, La., and former Milam County resident were held in the Baptist Church in Cameron Friday morning, March 27, 1936, with interment in Little River Cemetery at Jones Prairie.

Rev. O. C. Acrey, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Cameron, conducted the services.

Mr. McLerran was instantly killed late Wednesday afternoon near Shreveport, La., in an automobile crash. With him at the time was another salesman who escaped with minor injuries. It was said here that the car in which Mr. McLerran met his death crashed another machine on a one way bridge a short distance from Shereveport.

The body was returned to Cameron by the Leland Green Funeral Home when Corroll Green went to Shreveport Wednesday night.

Mr. McLerran was born and reared at Jones Prairie and was a brother of Archie McLerran, prominent citizen of Cameron and in the Federal mail service. Some 16 years ago Mr. McLerran was employed in Cameron and will be remembered here by many as a young business man. He had been employed as a salesman for the Hershey Company in Shreveport.

When news of the death reached Cameron hundreds were visably affected by the grief that seized many hearts. Expressions of sympathy to Mr. McLerran in Cameron and to the members of the pioneer family were made with genuine sorrow. Deceased was permanent in the affections of many who knew him for his genuine and lovable characteristics.

Surviving him are his widow of Shreveport, La., his mother, Mrs. Carrie McLerran of Palestine; two sisters, Mrs. H. R. Edwards of Palestine and Mrs. B. M. Goodwin of Buckholts; three brothers, Archie of Cameron, Baron of Houston and Robert of Oklahoma City.

Pallbearers were: Martin Peters, Tack Woody, Bill Lee of Houston, Ben of Purcell and Bruce Jones of Dallas, C. W. Bradbury, George T. Graves and Grady Stidham of Cameron.

Baldwin Sisters In Overturned Car, But Suffer No Injuries

Lady luck was shining on Miss Ruth and Miss Mary Baldwin Sunday afternoon when their automobile in which they were riding overturned four miles out of Cameron on the Calvert highway, leaving both none the worse.

Fifteen minutes later the Baldwin sisters were sitting peacefully in church and seemed well pleased with their experience as well as their good fortune.

UNDER THE COURT HOUSE DOME

By Berenice McLerran

The prohibitionists laid down on the job in the election here on Saturday, March 28, to determine whether the sale of liquor should be legalized or not. The anti-prohibitionists got out and worked, advertised and talked to the voters about voting for the sale of liquor. The Milam county repeal committee made the question of legalizing liquor very important stating that liquor taxes was needed to pay the old age pension. Perhaps that statement did win a lot of voters. But why did the prohibitionists just sit back and say nothing? Couldn't they find some argument to present?

Saturday night only eighteen voting boxes in the county made returns to Homer Nabours, County Clerk. There are 49 voting boxes in the county.

One of the laws in an election is that immediately upon the closing of the polls, and at intervals of two hours thereafter, one of the judges of election shall make a correct but unofficial memorandum of the total number of votes counted for each candidate at that time——In all general, special or primary elections, the presiding judge of election shall upon the completion of the count, immediately transmit by telephone or by more expeditious means if available, to the office of the county clerk, if the election be general or special election, or to any county chairman; if a primary election, an unofficial but complete report of the number of votes cast for or against each proposition submitted to the voters for determination.

Why can't these reports from elections come in promptly? Two dollars is paid for bringing the election returns into the county clerk's office, besides the $3.00 that is paid for holding the election. Sometimes even the closer towns, eight or ten miles away from Cameron are the last to get reports in, bringing them in two or more days after the election.

In an election, the polls are supposed to close at seven o'clock, and according to the law, no judge, clerk, supervisor or other officer of election shall make any statement or give any information in any manner, of the number of votes cast for or against any candidate or for or against any proposition submitted to the people or convey to any person his opinion regarding the state of the polls until after the closing thereof.

Reports of one box in this county was heard from in Cameron at seven o'clock. Perhaps the clock the election manager was holding the election by in his community was fast.

MRS. J. S. HENDERSON BURIED LITTLE RIVER

Funeral services for Mrs. J. S. Henderson of Waller were conducted on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Little River, near Cameron. Rev. W. H. Anderson of San Antonio, assited by the Rev. Stewart, pastor of the Baptist Church, Hempstead, conducted the services. Interment was made in Little River Cemetery.

Mrs. Henderson died on Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock in Waller, where hed husband is pastor of the Baptist church. She had been in declining health for three years, being confined to her bed for fifteen months. Friends marveled at her fortitude, but as a true Christian she expressed that the Lord would not put upon her more than she could bear, and that all things work together for good for those that love the Lord. Three years ago when Mrs. Henderson's health began to break, she made a request to Rev. and Mrs. Anderson, who were very close friends of she and husband, that Rev. Anderson conduct her funeral at death, and she named the songs to be sung, and the scriptures to be read. Her request was carried out in the funeral by Rev. Anderson. The songs she requested were: "If Jesus Goes With Me," "He Lives On High" and "Haven of Rest." These were sung by the Cameron church choir and the Little River Baptist church choir.

Mrs. Anderson was reared at Jones Prairie, the daughter of the late P. H. McKinney and Mrs. Willie Poole McKinney. She would have been 56 years of age March 25. After completing school in this county, she attended Baylor University, Waco. She was married to J. S. Henderson 32 years ago, March 23. She became a member of the Baptist church at the age of 12 years, living a consecrated life, was a devoted wife and mother.

Mrs. Henderson is survived by her husband and seven children: Judd S. Henderson of McKinney, McKinney Henderson of Austin, Mrs. Russell McNally of Houston, Lewis Pat Henderson of Austin, Gilmore Henderson of Center and Ruth Henderson of Waller; her mother, Mrs. P. H. McKinney of Jones Prairie; three sisters, Miss Edna McKinney of Jones Prairie; Mrs. J. H. McNell of Houston and Mrs. Jim Baskin of Cameron; two brothers, P. H. McKinney, J., and H. P. McKinney, Jones Prairie.

Pallbearers were: J. A. Jameson, Geo. Roden, P. H. Love and E. B. Yeager of Jones Prairie; Voss Harlan, Branchville and Roy Baskin, of Cameron.

Roy Law

has carried me to the court houses in various sections of Texas. These travels and contacts have permitted me to gather much information and knowledge that can be made available to the people of Milam County.

I have all the necessary legal training to administer the judicial duties for the office.

Through the probate court your county judge supervises the handling of the estates and property rights of orphan children and other unfortunate persons who by reasons over which they have no control find it necessary to have their business attended by guardians, administrators or others and I pledge you that if I am made county judge the interests and rights of these orphan children and other unfortunate persons will be looked after with the care and attention I would ask for my own children.

As presiding officer of the Commissioners Court the county judge is properly the business manager of the county. The business of Milam county is the largest business in the county and in importance to you and to me it is next to our own business. My business experience and training will enable me to handle the business affairs of the county with the assistance of the Commissioners Court in a business like manner. In my private affairs I have never turned down a good trade but at the time I have practiced strict economy. As County Judge I would work faithfully and untiring for the best interests of all the people practicing rigid economy in all the affairs of the county. Having stood at the window of your tax collectors office through the most trying economical period ever known to the people of our county I have witnessed the hardships, the sacrifices and burdens of the average tax payer. I am in a better position to undersand and appreciate the tax problems of our people than perhaps any other person who may offer for the office of county judge.

On the subject of taxation I openly declare that I favor a tax system and program that will give complete protection to the tax payer against the hazard of tax claims after taxes have been paid, that will place the burden of taxation fairly and justly on all men and all property, that will distribute the benefits of taxation in the same fair and equitable manner to all sections of our county.

No section of Milam county, no one town, no one person nor no one group of persons shall receive any special favor or consideration that in the position of county judge I might be able to grant at the expense of others, should I serve in that office.

I favor a county wide highway program and go on record as stating that highway building and maintenance is no longer a community problem. If permitted to serve as county judge I shall work with the highway department until the state highways in Milam county are made as good as the average of those in other counties. Approximately only thirty counties in Texas pay any money at all to the highway department out of motor vehicle license fees. Milam County is one of the thirty. How much money has Milam county paid to the highway department during recent years, how many millions of dollars has the department spent during these years, how much returns have we received from the deposits made?

I favor an efficient police protection for our public highways that human life and property may be given better protection.

If elected, I shall work throughout my tenure of office with the various governmental agencies to the end that the unemployed might have an opportunity to make an honest living. I was the original advocate of old age assistance, and favor linking unemployment with assistance for the aged and needy so that in giving assistance to our old people, the unemployed might also be benefitted.

I will refuse to be influenced by any person or group of persons who oppose a liberal program for those who are in the greatest need or who would deny to the various sections of Milam county improvements to which they are justly entitled.

I favor an open door policy in conducting the affairs of the County. A regular accounting should be given the people in such form and frame that all may know about their county business. Let the people be taken into confidence.

If elected I will devote all my time to the job. I sincerely believe that by hard work and strict application to duty with the co-operation of the capable commissioners you select I can accomplish much for the people of Milam County as their county judge. I pledge that character of service that you want and that you deserve.

I will deeply appreciate the continued confidence and support of the citizens throughout Milam County.

Respectfully submitted,
ROY LAW.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Thedford's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Thedford's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

Reed Rogers Gets Golfdom's Boquet

In a recent issue of a Port Arthur newspaper was the following comment on its sports page:

Introducing Reed Rogers, champion of Port Groves: Native of Cameron, resident of Port Arthur intermittent since 1930. Lefthanded; medium height and built; gray eyes; light brown thinning hair. Stylish in execution of shots; has a flair for the bizarre in dress; characteristic trait of walking well out in front of his foursome.

Won Port Groves title from Olon Ware, 3-2, after a campaign of many postponements because of inclement weather this winter. Is adjudged by many as the best left-handed player in this district. Hits a long hooking drive; excels in the clip shot.

Rogers has played little golf lately—yet his skill seems undiminished as evidenced by a fine 72 over his domain last Sunday.

That dim vision of smoke you see rising over the back nine at Val Verde is the result of it being scorched last week by one Reed Rogers. Playing with "Sonny" Ronshausen, Reed trotted that distance in 29 blows to set up a new record that should withstand a lot of firing. The old mark of 30 was hung up by Emmitt Crumpler in a match with "Red" Armsthong during last year's city championship.

Roger's card, showing five birdies and four pars, follows: Par, 4434 434 444—34; Rogers, 433 523 434—29.

On the front line he had turned in a 33, including four birdies and two balls out of bounds. His total score of 62 for 18 holes almost makes one suspect he used a rifle instead of golf sticks—but congratulations, feyyow! In fact a chrysanthemum to you!

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to our many relatives and friends for their sympathy and kindness in the sad hour of the death of our husband, father, son and brother. We especially thank those who sent beautiful floral offerings.

The refreshment course further carried out the patriotic theme, miniature flags as plate favors with salad, ice and cakes in red, white and blue.

Following the series of contract Mrs. J. M. Bowman was awarded a double deck of cards for high score. A plaque was given Mrs. B. V. Roberts for next high.

Texas Beauty Presents "Blue Bonnet Blue"

A new high note in fashions was struck last week when the Texas Centennial Celebrations presented beautiful "Blue Bonnet Blue" to the fashion world in a style show at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel in New York City. Scores of leading stylists, designers, and fashion editors applauded when lovely Janice Jarratt, San Antonio girl known to the nation as America's most photographed girl, appeared in this striking Blue Bonnet gown designed especially for the occasion by Vogue. Decorating the luxurious lounge were 250 flowering Blue Bonnet plants gathered near San Antonio and Corpus Christi and air-expressed to New York.

Official adoption of "Blue Bonnet Blue" by fashion authorities has caused the lustrous State flower of Texas to be introduced into spring and summer fashions throughout the nation. Thus enthusiasm for the Texas Centennial Celebrations, already evident in many fields, motivates progress in the fashion world.

DONALD NEIL McGREGOR GREETS CITY WHERE FAMILY MADE HISTORY

Of much interest to friends in Cameron was the arrival at the Cameron Hospital on March 26, 1936 of Donald Neil McGregor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harleigh McGregor. Donald Neil's advent into the historic atmosphere of Cameron comes with the heritage of interesting parents.

Mr. McGregor is a Cameron boy who found success beyond the borders of his home state. He made good in the business world at an early age. He is now with the Texas Company as traveling auditor, for the past two years doing service in South America, Africa, India, Australia, New Zealand and China.

He was married in Sydney, Australia, to Miss Joyce Lambert, the mother, daughter of A. R. Lambert of Capetown, South Africa and formerly of England.

Mr. and Mrs. McGregor were last settled at Shanghai. Mrs. McGregor arrived in Cameron in February. Mr. McGregor was detained a few weeks and sailed from Shanghai on February 25, arriving in San Francisco March 11.

In a distance telephone conversation with Mrs. McGregor from San Francisco he advised that he would reach San Antonio on March 14. Mrs. Gussie McGregor, his mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer McLane went to San Antonio by motor and brought Mr. McGregor to Cameron.
